SERES Global requires all grant recipients to complete a grant request form. The grant request form outlines the terms and conditions of the grant provided by SERES Global. Grant requests are discussed quarterly at Board meetings, and require unanimous vote for approval. At the completion of the granting period, the grant recipient must submit a technical and financial report. This report provides detailed information on grant funds spent, and the impact of the funding. Copies of these grant reports are maintained on SERES Global's online server.

SERES Global also conducts a thorough review of the transparency and accountability of any grantee partners, in order to ensure that any grant funds are spent in accordance with SERES Global's requirements.

Asociación SERES - the sole grant recipient for 2017 - maintains accounting records (on cash basis) documenting its expenditure for youth training and educational programs and other miscellaneous program expenses. These records are maintained by a licensed Guatemalan accountant, and submitted monthly to the Guatemalan SAT as required by the Guatemalan laws and regulations. Every three months, detailed financial reports are provided to the SERES Global President for review and a site visit is undertaken. Copies of all of Asociación SERES' transactions are stored in hard copy and electronically on Asociación SERES' servers and are available for review by SERES Global upon request.

Detailed financial reports for Asociación SERES can be found online at: <http://seres.org/annual-reports/>
